About the College

Idhaya College for Women was established in 1996, affiliated to Alagappa University, Karaikudi. It is a Minority Institution run by the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Congregation, Pondicherry. Keeping in mind the vision of Fr. Louis Savenien Dupius, the Founder of this Congregation, the College commits itself to uplift the womenfolk economically, socially, intellectually and spiritually. The motto of the college is "Aspire to Achieve". The aspiration of Idhaya is that every girl while attaining knowledge strives to achieve wonderfully and excel as a perfect model of womanhood.

About the Department

The Department of English enjoys a special privilege in upgrading the knowledge of every undergraduate since 1996. UG Program was introduced in 2008 and PG Program in 2012. We have five faculty members specialized in various fields of literature. The English Language Laboratory is well equipped with the state of art facilities to enhance language and communicative skills of the students. The Department of English fosters the study of English for Communication, promote ethnic and cultural values of the society through Literature and strives for individual enhancement to the Society and the Nation. The main motto of our department is to enhance the knowledge of our students through conferences and seminars.

About the Seminar

Literature is an art of reflecting preserving, transmitting knowledge and entertainment and reshaping the contours of social, psychological, spiritual or political role.

The aim of conducting the seminar is to help the students to develop a sense of understanding to gain insight and experience in new perspectives. It helps them to acquire knowledge, skills and attitudes related to language skills and literature and also enables them to sharpen their literary sensibility.
