

Institution organizes professional ethics programmes for students

To create the awareness on the Code of Conduct every year, the College organizes Fresher's Day, for the fresher students. High Personalities are invited to deliver a lecture based on moral values and good discipline. The Principal also explains the way of dress code and how to give respect to faculty and senior students and restriction of using mobile inside the campus. To entertain the junior students, the colorful cultural events based on values are performed by the senior students.
